

“I was proud to be a sponsor
of that tax...”

Unfortunately, that's what Maggie Hassan said... she's proud to raise taxes on New Hampshire.

What is Maggie proud of?

- The RGGI electricity tax has cost ratepayers more than $900 million in states that passed the tax<sup>2</sup>
- The RGGI electricity tax makes New Hampshire small businesses less competitive through higher energy costs and greater regulation<sup>2</sup>

Call Maggie Hassan at 518-5805 and tell her that raising electricity taxes on New Hampshire families is nothing to be proud of.
